

Judy Radvanyi

Judy has been a successful Realtor since she was first licensed in Virginia in 1999. In April she celebrated her 12 year anniversary with Avery-Hess, Realtors.

Judy belongs to the Northern Virginia Association of Realtors (NVAR) and is acknowledged as a Top Producer in recognition of her helping clients buy and sell their homes. In 2004 Judy teamed up with Albert Crider and they became "The Match Masters".

Judy is a graduate of George Mason University with a BA in Communications. In addition to her real estate license she holds a CDPE (Certified Distressed Property Expert) Designation.

Professionalism is an integral part of Judy's real estate career. Her understanding of legal documents and negotiating skills have played an integral part of her success as a real estate agent.

Judy's knowledge and ethical integrity have been the foundation of her real estate success.

On a personal note, Judy is a life-long resident of Northern Virginia. She resides with her husband in Falls Church.

Outside of real estate Judy enjoys keeping fit through yoga, dance and working out. Judy's passion for dance started early, she studied classical ballet for 16 years at the Northern Virginia Ballet Academy.

For leisure Judy enjoys traveling with her husband experiencing new cultures, food and ways of life. She has traveled through Europe, the Caribbean and parts of Central America. As part of her studies at George Mason University, Judy completed a semester abroad totally immersing herself in the culture.

Avery-Hess, Realtors
Tysons Corner Regional Office
Direct: 703.405.9456
judy@thematchmaster.com
Private Fax: 703.997.8187